PROMOTIONS

Ross Medical Education Center of St. Clair, which has 19 locations in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, promoted Mia Vargo to assistant campus director at its Port Huron campus.

Vargo joined Ross in 2009 as a career development counselor. She has a bachelor's degree in human resource development from Oakland University in Rochester and has 13 years of management experience. She lives in Port Huron.

The Port Huron campus is at 2887 Krafft Road, Suite 700 in the Court of Flags Mall. Founded in 1976, Ross caters to the needs of students looking for a focused, short-term allied health education. For details, check out www.rossmedicaleducation.com.
